CORRECTIONS.

YALE UNIVERSITY, February, 1893.

Dear Professor Gildersleeve:—In a note on p. 420 of your vol. XIII, I am quoted as holding that the aorist and perfect tenses are "older" than the imperfect. But the word older in the passage referred to is an error of the press for other, as it stood correctly in the first edition of the work quoted from (Skt. Gr. §779a).

Yours truly,

W. D. WHITNEY.

---

In the note on the first page of this number I overlooked SV. adadiṣṭa. Epic vibharas and the still later ajījahat should have been mentioned also; although these two forms, on account of their lateness, are without significance as regards the mutual relation of present and aoristic reduplication.

E. W. HOPKINS.
